

From the desk of Dr Harry

Passive smoking - Secondhand Tobacco Smoke Exposure among Children

Harry Zehnwirth MBBS (HON) FRACP

Hot off the press... a number of research articles appearing in the esteemed American 'Pediatrics' journal regarding the effects of passive smoking on children are listed below.

These papers confirm that we need to do all possible to encourage caregivers to quit.

The articles provide further evidence that children of all ages inhale and are affected by secondhand tobacco....

Follow the links to the American Academy of Pediatrics reports:

- Tobacco as a Substance of Abuse
- Secondhand and Prenatal Tobacco Smoke Exposure
- Tobacco Use: A Pediatric Disease
- Secondhand Smoke and Respiratory Symptoms Among Adolescent Current Smokers
- Secondhand Tobacco Smoke Exposure Among Children and Adolescents

For more Pediatric News from Dr Harry regarding Pregnancy and Smoking, click here

Copyright oKIDokie Pty Ltd October 2009